this book reclaims hegel s notion of the end of art or more precisely of art s past character not just as a piece of the history of philosophy but as a living critical and interpretive methodology it addresses the presence of the past character of art in both hegel and contemporary philosophy and aesthetics the book s innovative contribution lies in unifying the hegelian thesis with discussions of contemporary art and philosophy the author not only offers a hegelian exegesis but also applies the idea of the past character of art to themes that are related to both hegel s philosophy such as the french revolution and the modern state kantian aesthetics and religion and the sacred space disclosed for art and going beyond hegel such as celan s poetry gramsci s criticism of croce human rights and even the grunge rock band pearl jam conversely such non hegelian explorations will help enlighten what may look like a specific thread of hegel s aesthetics but can be used to shed light on some core motives of his philosophy the author s interpretation of art s past character reclaims the full value attractiveness and philosophical soundness of hegel s thesis while rejecting its interpretation in terms of a complete dissolution of the aesthetic element into the philosophical one hegel and the present of art s past character will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working on hegel philosophy of art and aesthetics history of philosophy political philosophy and art theory
