the ultimate object of a sunday school teacher should be in humble dependence upon divine grace to impart that religious knowledge to produce those religious impressions and to form those religious habits in the minds of the children which shall be crowned with the salvation of their immortal souls or in other words to be instrumental in producing that conviction of sin that repentance towards god that faith in the lord jesus christ that habitual subjection in heart and life to the authority of the scriptures which constitute at once the form and power of genuine godliness excerpt from one year of sunday school lessons for young children a manual for teachers and parents presenting a series of sunday school lessons selected arranged and adapted for the use of the youngest classes the old axiom two bodies cannot occupy the same space at the same time is true in the physical world 5 but in the mental world she who is to touch the life of a child must put herself in his place must see from his point of view for the time her mode of thinking the mode of the mature mind must be set aside she is to think along the same channel with the mind of the child whose life can be measured in months she is to understand as a child linguists tell us they think in a foreign language the task of the linguist is precisely the task of the teacher she must study the child s language until she can think in it in other words she must discover his mode of thought
