a daring firsthand and utterly unscripted account of crisis in america from ferguson to flint to cliven bundy s ranch to donald trump s unstoppable campaign for president at every turn pulitzer prize winner and bestselling author of detroit an american autopsy charlie leduff was there in the fall of 2013 long before any sane person had seriously considered the possibility of a trump presidency charlie leduff sat in the office of then fox news ceo roger ailes and made a simple but prophetic claim the whole country is bankrupt and on high boil it s a shitshow out there no one in the bubbles of washington dc new york or los angles was talking about it least of all the media leduff wanted to go to the heart of the country to report what was really going on ailes baulked could the hard living and straight shooting leduff be controlled but then perhaps on a whim he agreed and so leduff set out to record a tv series called the americans and along the way ended up bearing witness to the ever quickening unraveling of the american dream for three years leduff travelled the width and breadth of the country with his team of production irregulars ending up on the mexican border crossing the rio grande on a yellow rubber kayak alongside undocumented immigrants in the middle of ferguson as the city burned and watching the children of flint get sick from undrinkable water racial political social and economic tensions were escalating by the day the inexorable effects of technological change and globalization were being felt more and more acutely at the same time as wages stagnated and the price of housing education and healthcare went through the roof the american people felt defeated and abandoned by their politicians and those politicians seemed incapable of rising to the occasion the old way of life was slipping away replaced only by social media part time work and opioid addiction sh tshow is that true tragic and distinctively american story told from the parts of the country hurting the most a soul baring irreverent and iconoclastic writer leduff speaks the language of everyday americans and is unafraid of getting his hands dirty he scrambles the tired old political social and racial categories taking no sides or prisoners old school gonzo style reporting this is both a necessary confrontation with the darkest parts of the american psyche and a desperately needed reminder of the country s best instincts when claudia a young american turns up dead in the courtyard of an ancient castle in bruno s jurisdiction her death is assumed to be an accident related to opioid use but her doctor persuades bruno that things may not be so simple thus begins an investigation that leads bruno to monsieur de bourdeille the scholar with whom the girl had been studying and then through that man s past he is a renowned art historian who became extraordinarily wealthy through the sale of paintings that may have been falsely attributed or so claudia suggested shortly before her death in his younger days bourdeille had aided the resistance and been arrested by a vichy policeman whose own life story also becomes inexorably entangled with the case also in the mix is a young falconer who works at the château des milandes the former home of fabled jazz singer josephine baker in the end of course bruno will tie all the loose threads together and see that justice is served along with a generous helping of his signature périgordian cuisine
