from leonardo padura whose crime novels featuring detective mario conde form the basis of netflix s four seasons in havana the transparency of time sees the cuban investigator pursuing a mystery spanning centuries of occult history mario conde is facing down his sixtieth birthday what does he have to show for his decades on the planet a failing body a slower mind and a decrepit country in which both the ideals and failures of the cuban revolution are being swept away in favor of a new and newly cosmopolitan worship of money rescue comes in the form of a new case an old marxist turned flamboyant practitioner of santería appears on the scene to engage conde to track down a stolen statue of the virgen de regla a black madonna this sets conde on a quest that spans twenty first century havana as well as the distant past as he delves as far back as the crusades in an attempt to uncover the true provenance of the statue through vignettes from the life of a catalan peasant named antoni barral who appears throughout history in different guises as a shepherd during the spanish civil war as vassal to a feudal lord we trace the madonna to present day cuba with barral serving as conde's alter ego unstuck in time and conde serving as the author's we are treated to a panorama of history and reminded of the impossibility of ever remaining on its sidelines no matter how obscure we may think our places in the action equal parts the name of the rose and the maltese falcon the transparency of time cements leonardo padura's position as the preeminent literary crime writer of our time the first of the havana quartet featuring inspector mario conde a tropical marlowe a young transvestite in a red evening dress is found strangled in havana park conde's investigation reveals the dark world of those born in the revolution who live without dreaming of exile and seek their identity in the midst of disaster in a country plagued by corruption and economic breakdown everyone wears a mask to survive a magnificent novel an author haunted by the tragic story and the passion and emotion of his characters magazine litteraire

mario conde investigates a murder in the barrio chino the rundown chintown of havana not his usual beat but when conde was asked to take the case by his colleague the sultry perfectly proportioned lieutenant patricia chion a frequent object of his nightly fantasies he could not resist the case proves to be unusual pedro cuang a lonely old man is found hanging naked from a beam in the ceiling of his dingy room one of his fingers has been amputated and a drawing of two arrows was engraved with a knife on his chest was this a ritual santería killing or a just a sordid settling of accounts in a world of drug trafficking that began to infiltrate cuban society in the 1980s soon conde discovers unexpected connections secret businesses and a history of misfortune uprooting and loneliness that affected many immigrant families from china as ever with padura the story is soaked in atmosphere the drinking of rum in deliciously smoke filled bars the friendships the food and beautiful women culture and the cuban state examines the politics of culture in communist cuba it focuses on cultural policy censorship and the political participation of artists writers and academics such as tania bruguera jesús díaz rafael hernández kcho reynier leyva novo leonardo padura and josé toirac the cultural field is important for the reproduction of the regime in place given its pretense and ambition to be eternally revolutionary and to lead a genuine cultural revolution cultural actors must be mobilized and handled with care given their presumed disposition to speak their mind and to cherish their autonomy this book argues that cultural actors also seek recognition by the main for a long time the only sponsor and patron of the art in cuba the curator state the curator state is also a gatekeeper state arbitrarily and selectively opening and closing the space for public expression and for access to foreign currencies and the global market the time when everything was either mandatory or forbidden is over in cuba the regime seems to have learned from egregious mistakes that led to a massive exodus of artists writers and academics in a country where things change so everything could stay the same the controlled opening in the cultural field playing on the actors ambition and fear illuminates a broader phenomenon the evolving rules of the political game in the longest standing dictatorship of the hemisphere a scorching novel from a star of cuban fiction the third in the havana quartet series a gripping novel about the assassination of leon trotsky in mexico city in 1940 in the man who loved dogs leonardo padura brings a noir sensibility to one of the most fascinating and complex political narratives of the past hundred years the assassination of leon trotsky by ramón mercader the story revolves around iván cárdenas maturell who in his youth was the great hope of modern cuban literature until he dared to write a story that was deemed counterrevolutionary when we meet him years later in havana iván is a loser a humbled and defeated man with a quiet unremarkable life who earns his modest living as a proofreader at a veterinary magazine one afternoon he meets a mysterious foreigner in the company of two russian wolfhounds this is the man who loved dogs and as the pair grow closer iván begins to understand that his new friend is hiding a terrible secret moving seamlessly between iván s life in cuba ramón s early years in spain and france and trotsky s long years of exile the man who loved dogs is padura s most ambitious and brilliantly executed novel yet this is a story about political ideals tested and characters broken a multilayered epic that effortlessly weaves together three different plot threads trotsky in exile ramón in pursuit iván in frustrated stasis to bring emotional truth to historical fact a novel whose reach is matched only by its astonishing successes on the page the man who loved dogs lays bare the human cost of abstract ideals and the insidious corrosive effects of life under a repressive political regime padura's heretics spans and defies literary categories ingenious maureen corrigan fresh air a sweeping novel of art theft anti semitism contemporary cuba and crime from a renowned cuban author heretics is leonardo padura's greatest detective work yet in 1939 the saint louis sails from hamburg into havana's port with hundreds of jewish refugees seeking asylum from the nazi regime from the docks nine year old daniel kaminsky watches as the passengers including his mother father and sister become embroiled in a fiasco of cuban corruption but the kaminskys have a treasure that they hope will save them a small rembrandt portrait of christ yet six days later the vessel is forced to leave the harbor with the family bound for the horrors of europe the kaminskys along with their priceless heirloom disappear nearly seven decades later the rembrandt reappears in an auction house in london prompting daniel's son to travel to cuba to track down the story of his family's lost masterpiece he hires the down on his luck private detective Mario Conde and together they navigate a web of deception and violence in the morally complex city of Havana. In Heretics Leonardo Padura takes us from the tenements and beaches of Cuba to Rembrandt's gloomy studio in seventeenth-century Amsterdam, telling the story of people forced to choose between the tenets of their faith and the realities of the world between their personal desires and the demands of their times. A grand detective story and a moving historical drama, Padura's novel is as compelling, mysterious and enduring as the painting at its center.

Scorching novel from a star of Cuban fiction. Second Conde mystery set in languid Havana.

This book examines Cuban society through a study of its detective fiction and more particularly contemporary Cuban society through the novels of the author and critic Leonardo Padura Fuentes. The author traces the development of Cuban detective writing in the light of the work of twentieth-century Western European literary critics and philosophers including Raymond Williams, Antonio Gramsci, Terry Eagleton, Roland Barthes, Jean-Paul Sartre, Michel Foucault, Jean-François Lyotard, and Jean Baudrillard. In order to gain a better understanding of the social and historical context in which this genre emerged, the analysis includes discussion of the broader philosophical, political, and historical issues raised by the Cuban Revolution. The book concludes that the study of this popular genre in Cuba is of crucial importance to the scholar who wishes to reach as full an understanding of the social dynamics within that society as possible.
